

on a silver platform. We don't want any such candidate, and we won't have him."

"What will you do?"

"We shall go down to Brooklyn on the 24th and nominate a State ticket and fill out our electoral ticket."

"What do you think of Senator Hill's attitude?"

"Well, Senator Hill prefers keeping control of the State organization to being the representative man from New-York State in the reorganized Democracy. The time will come when he will regret being content with such petty politics."

It is stated that the Buffalo delegates to the adjourned Syracuse Convention will start for Brooklyn on Saturday. The entire delegation will go to Brooklyn. The convention will be held in the Academy of Music on Thursday next. It will name a ticket probably on the Saratoga platform unanimously adopted on June 24, which declares that "until international co-operation for bimetallism can be secured, to which all our efforts as a Government and as a people should be in good faith directed, we favor the rigid maintenance of the present gold standard essential to the preservation of our National credit, the redemption of our public pledge and the keeping inviolate of our country's honor." This platform was drafted by Senator Hill. It is reported here that Senator Palmer, the Sound Money candidate for President, and General Simon Bolivar Buckner will be present at the Brooklyn Convention. Henry G. Richmond and other prominent Democrats here say that a candidate for Governor in opposition to Thacher will be nominated at the Brooklyn Convention.

A NEW ELEMENT IN THE CONVENTION.

There was an element in the Convention new to Democratic conventions which favored the nomination of Congressman William Sulzer for Governor. This element was largely Populist in character and it chose to think that Sulzer a most ardent silverite. This faction was largely led by Mayor McGuire, of Syracuse. The speeches made in the Convention in Sulzer's favor largely consisted of attacks upon Thacher. Thus, Judge Downs, of Broome County, who nominated Sulzer, said:

"Has any one here a letter from John Boyd Thacher saying he favors Bryan and Sewall?"

"Mr. Thacher has never recanted his gold standard speech," said John M. Carlisle, of Watertown.

Thomas F. Grady had to come to Thacher's defense and to pledge his word that Thacher's position was perfectly clear. "Have no fear," he said, "that in nominating Thacher you nominate a man of doubtful position or one who will detract from the strength of Bryan and Sewall."

William H. Russell, a recent Southern immigrant to New-York, called attention to Thacher's speech in June and called upon the Convention to nominate Sulzer.

When the vote was taken, however, Thacher had 333 votes, Sulzer only 90, and Judge Porter, of Watertown, 20. Mr. Thacher was then declared nominated.

Judge Porter was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation and Judge Titus had a similar experience as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

The electoral ticket named is the weakest in many years put forward by the Democratic party in this State. There are no men of prominence upon it beyond the two electors-at-large—Benjamin Wood, Editor of "The New-York Daily News," and Robert P. Bush, of Elmira, ex-Speaker of the Assembly—and the district delegates, Andrew McLean, William R. Hearst, William L. Brown, John Brisben Walker and H. H. Rockwell. All the rest are political noodies picked up by David B. Hill and the other leaders in the Convention and put upon the list without expectation that they will ever have to act as electors. There are very few business men among the thirty-six men named; nearly all are obscure politicians. David B. Hill, however, accomplished his chief aim when he undertook to change the Democratic State Convention by long-distance telephone. He grasped control of the machinery of the Democratic party by putting his lieutenant, Elliot Danforth, at the head of the Democratic State Committee. Mr. Hill also put into the ranks of the committee several friends of his. Opposition was made to Mr. Danforth's election as chairman when the State Committee met, but it was of a feeble character; only eight committeemen of fifty opposed his election. The ground of opposition was that while Mr. Danforth was ostensibly a hot partisan of Bryan and Sewall he was really as coldly indifferent toward the Populist candidates as the gold Democrats.

John F. Gaynor, of Onondaga County, who was elected treasurer of the Democratic State Committee, is a wealthy contractor. When he was told of his election as treasurer, he said: "Confound it, why did they elect me? I am a gold man."

WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN RESIGNS.

William F. Sheehan promptly carried out his threat to resign as a member of the Democratic National Committee if a platform should be adopted approving of the Chicago platform. The following telegram was received during the session of the Convention:

New-York, September 17, 1896.
To the Hon. Thomas F. Grady, Chairman, Convention Hall, Buffalo, N. Y.
Resignation from the National Committee has this day been forwarded to the Hon. James K. Jones.
WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN.

The Democratic State Committee, however, deferred electing a successor to Mr. Sheehan until its meeting in New-York the coming week. Possibly this postponement of action in the selection of a member of the National Committee may indicate hostility to Frank Campbell, of Bath, ex-State Controller, who has been suggested for the place.

THACHER'S PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

John Boyd Thacher, it is said, will attempt to infuse life into the dead Democratic canvass in this State by bringing State issues to the front and thus hopes to avoid mention among the silverites of his gold standard speech and among the gold Democrats of his acceptance of the nomination for Governor upon a silver platform. The platform was largely charged with references to State matters, with the purpose of giving Mr. Thacher an opportunity to talk on State affairs. Mr. Thacher and his Republican opponent, Frank S. Black, live within six miles of one another, one at Albany and the other at Troy. This makes the vicinity of the State capital more of a political center this year than has been in a good many years.

POPULISTS WILL NOT INDORSE THACHER.

The Populist State Committee decided after a conference to-night that they will not indorse the nomination of Thacher. Prominent members of the committee said to-night that they would have given Sulzer their support had he received the Democratic nomination, but that they cannot support Thacher.

A bet of $200 was made at the Genesee House this evening that Thacher will be beaten by over 200,000 in the State.

STATE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

CHOSEN BY THE POPOCRATIC CONVENTION AT BUFFALO.

Buffalo, Sept. 17.—The Presidential electors chosen by the Democratic State Convention here to-day are as follows:

ELECTORS-AT-LARGE.

Robert H. Bush, of Horseheads; Benjamin Wood, of New-York.
Dist. Electors.
18—Wm. B. Brainerd.
19—David Moore.
20—Andrew McLean.
21—John P. Durkin.
22—John P. Durkin.
23—John P. Durkin.
24—John P. Durkin.
25—John P. Durkin.
26—John P. Durkin.
27—John P. Durkin.
28—John P. Durkin.
29—John P. Durkin.
30—John P. Durkin.
31—John P. Durkin.
32—John P. Durkin.
33—John P. Durkin.
34—John P. Durkin.
35—John P. Durkin.
36—John P. Durkin.
37—John P. Durkin.
38—John P. Durkin.
39—John P. Durkin.
40—John P. Durkin.
41—John P. Durkin.
42—John P. Durkin.
43—John P. Durkin.
44—John P. Durkin.
45—John P. Durkin.
46—John P. Durkin.
47—John P. Durkin.
48—John P. Durkin.
49—John P. Durkin.
50—John P. Durkin.
51—John P. Durkin.
52—John P. Durkin.
53—John P. Durkin.
54—John P. Durkin.
55—John P. Durkin.
56—John P. Durkin.
57—John P. Durkin.
58—John P. Durkin.
59—John P. Durkin.
60—John P. Durkin.
61—John P. Durkin.
62—John P. Durkin.
63—John P. Durkin.
64—John P. Durkin.
65—John P. Durkin.
66—John P. Durkin.
67—John P. Durkin.
68—John P. Durkin.
69—John P. Durkin.
70—John P. Durkin.
71—John P. Durkin.
72—John P. Durkin.
73—John P. Durkin.
74—John P. Durkin.
75—John P. Durkin.
76—John P. Durkin.
77—John P. Durkin.
78—John P. Durkin.
79—John P. Durkin.
80—John P. Durkin.
81—John P. Durkin.
82—John P. Durkin.
83—John P. Durkin.
84—John P. Durkin.
85—John P. Durkin.
86—John P. Durkin.
87—John P. Durkin.
88—John P. Durkin.
89—John P. Durkin.
90—John P. Durkin.
91—John P. Durkin.
92—John P. Durkin.
93—John P. Durkin.
94—John P. Durkin.
95—John P. Durkin.
96—John P. Durkin.
97—John P. Durkin.
98—John P. Durkin.
99—John P. Durkin.
100—John P. Durkin.

COIN-GATE & SILVER

VIOLET WATER

ITS WORK QUICKLY DONE.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE POPOCRATIC CONVENTION IN BUFFALO.

THE RAID EXECUTION OF THE MACHINE SOMEWHAT DELAYED BY THE IRREPRESSIBLE PURRO—PERMANENT CHAIRMAN ROCKWELL'S "ARGUMENT"—SULZER'S BOMBS—HOW THE NOMINATIONS WERE MADE.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Buffalo, Sept. 17.—If all the blatherskites outside of an insane asylum could be got together in one place, it is doubtful if they would equal in wild delusions and unquestioned evidences of dementia the vapors of the "orators" who rent the air in the Academy of Music to-day, entertaining the body assembled, called the Democratic State Convention, on alleged questions of finance. "Tom" Grady's Popocratic deliverance yesterday, on his election as temporary chairman of the Convention, was mild and ingenious compared to some of the "nominating speeches" which were listened to during the Convention's long session to-day. The result, the utter collapse of the organized effort to stampede the Convention to radical free silver, was the conspicuous and clearly defined feature of the day. Out of 143 votes cast for Governor, 333 of them were credited to a man who very recently asserted that every dollar he possessed in the world would be jeopardized by the election of Bryan.

THACHER'S GOLD SENTIMENTS HEARD AGAIN.

This nomination of Thacher by a three-fourths vote was made also in the face of his speech at the Democratic State Convention in June last, when he denounced the foolishness of the 16 to 1 theory in unmistakable language. That the Convention should not nominate Mr. Thacher without knowing where he stood, one of the Sulzer advocates read aloud parts of his Saratoga address.

The only significant change observable in the hall decorations since yesterday's session was the introduction of two small and cheap portraits of W. J. Bryan, but only one small and cheap portrait of Arthur Sewall. They seemed to have been left near one of the Bryan portraits as though the managers had expected to put in also one of "Tom" Watson's pictures, but it hadn't arrived in time. The Convention was not even called to order at 10 a. m., but it was 11:15 a. m. before Senator Grady led his temporary chairman's gavel fall. The delay, it was explained, was caused by trouble with Senator Hill's long-distance telephone at Albany. Hill had got wind of Purroy's intentions to make a display of his oratory before the Convention. Fearing disastrous results, Hill tried to stop the performance, and it was said that it was because of interruptions in the reception of Hill's unheeded admonition to Purroy that the meeting was so late in starting.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.

Bulger, of Oswego, promptly submitted the report of the Committee on Credentials. It seated the Albany delegates, gave the contestants of Monroe County half a vote each; made the sitting delegation of Wayne County regular, and put in John H. McGovern and his associates of Wyoming County. The report was adopted with a majority of 333 to 90.